

INTERRUPTING RACISM: REAL GROWTH FOR REAL CHANGE:

BEING ACCOUNTABLE FOR SUPPORTING DIVERSITY AND INCLUSIVITY IN YOUR ORGANIZATION-

A COMMUNITY CONVERSATION FEATURING
VANESSA MCDOWELL, YWCA-MADISON CEO

SEPTEMBER 26, 2019 | 5:30 PM - 8:00 PM

5:30-6:00 Registration & light refreshments

6:00-8:00 Event

25 KESSEL COURT, MADISON, WI 53711
LOWER LEVEL TRAINING ROOM

Event is free and open to the public, but registration is required in advance. RSVP by emailing Amanda Okech at amanda.okech@journeymhc.org by September 23rd.

A proven leader in the human services field for over 14 years, Vanessa McDowell brings vast experiences to her position as YWCA Madison's CEO. Vanessa works from an empowerment model which aligns with the mission of the YWCA Madison- to eliminate racism and empower women. In 2018, Vanessa was named one of the 35 Most Influential African Americans in Wisconsin and one of Madison's 40 under 40.

This event made possible by:

WISCONSIN DEPARTMENT of HEALTH SERVICES